Law Society Client Identification Verification Requirements
Law Society Chefit Identification Verification Requirements
Please select the option that best describes the type of client you are, so that we can comply with Law Society client identification regulations:
An individual. Upon request, you must provide GMA with original government-issued identification that is valid and has not expired, such as a driver's licence, birth certificate, passport or similar document.
An organization such as a corporation created or registered pursuant to an Act. You must provide GMA upon request with a copy of a written confirmation from a government registry as to the existence, name and address of the organization, which includes the names of the organization's directors, if applicable, such as: i. a certificate of corporate status issued by a public body, ii. a copy obtained from a public body of a record that the organization is required to file annually under applicable legislation, or iii. a copy of a similar record obtained from a public body that confirms the organization's existence.
An organization other than a corporation (e.g. a trust or partnership which is not registered in any government registry). You must provide GMA upon request with a copy of the organization's constating documents, such as a trust or partnership agreement, articles of association or any other similar record that confirms its existence as an organization.
I/We certify that the above information is true and correct and we agree to the above terms.
Dated:, 201
Signature of Client 1
Signature of Client 2 (if applicable)

A note on collection of personal information: GMA uses and discloses your personal information only for the purposes for which it was collected. GMA does not sell or rent personal information to any organization or person for any reason.
