Law Society Client Identification Verification Requirements

Please select the option that best describes the type of client you are, so that we can comply with Law Society client identification regulations:

An individual. Upon request, you must provide GMA with original government-issued identification that is valid and has not expired, such as a driver's licence, birth certificate, passport or similar document.

An organization such as a corporation created or registered pursuant to an Act. You must provide GMA upon request with a copy of a written confirmation from a government registry as to the existence, name and address of the organization, which includes the names of the organization's directors, if applicable, such as:

- i. a certificate of corporate status issued by a public body,
- ii. a copy obtained from a public body of a record that the organization is required to file annually under applicable legislation, or
- iii. a copy of a similar record obtained from a public body that confirms the organization's existence.

An organization other than a corporation (e.g. a trust or partnership which is not registered in any government registry). You must provide GMA upon request with a copy of the organization's constating documents, such as a trust or partnership agreement, articles of association or any other similar record that confirms its existence as an organization.

I/We certify that the above information is true and correct, and we agree to the above terms.
